THE SANDBURR

SANDBURR

Scotland County R-1 High School
Memphis, Missouri

DEDICATION

We would like to dedicate the Sandburr to our Mothers and Fathers in deep appreciation for helping us during our four most important years.

If it weren't for you behind us, giving us a helping hand here and discipline there, we would not be the people we are today. Your guidance helped in the formation of memories which happily end our high school career and make us ready to take that important step forward into the world of tomorrow.

CLASS HISTORY

In 1957, a bewildered group of freshmen met with their sponsors, Mr. Powell and Mr. Easterday, and began their exciting experiences at Memphis High. At our first class meeting, we elected officers as follows: President, Linda Moore; Vice President, Don Robeson; Secretary-Treasurer, Deanna Harvey; Historian, Leslie Eager.

We went through the usual initiation ceremonies and luckily we all came out alive. After this we treated the sophomores and faculty to a wiener roast.

Deanna Harvey was candidate for Barnwarming Queen, Jeri Kroggel was Queen of the Rose Dance, and Steve Courtney was candidate for Kitchenwarming King.

During the year we had a roller skating party in Kirksville.

As sophomores we elected the following officers: President, Deanna Harvey; Vice President, Steve Courtney; Secretary-Treasurer, Jeri Kroggel; Historian, Shirley Lancaster. Our sponsor was Mr. Campbell.

This year the tables were turned and we initiated the freshmen, after which they treated us to a wiener roast.

The sophomore candidate for the Kitchenwarming King was Carly Fountain. Sandra Moore was candidate for the Rose Dance Queen, and Ferol Myers was candidate for the Barnwarming Queen.

Our junior year we elected Steve Courtney as President; Carly Fountain as Vice President; Ferol Myers as Secretary-Treasurer, and Linda Moore as Historian.

The junior candidate for the Rose Dance was Arlene Huff. Sandra Moore was Queen of the Barnwarming, and Don Robeson was Kitchenwarming King.

Our main item that year was the magazine sale, which was highly successful. The profits went to the decorating for the prom and the remainder to be saved for the senior trip.

The junior play, "They Went Thataway," directed by Mr. Powell, was presented. It was a big success.

Under the supervision of our sponsor, Mr. Schromm, we decorated for the prom. Our theme was "Southern Serenade." The banquet was held at the Methodist church. The Lions club sponsored a late, late show and served breakfast in the school cafeteria.

In our senior year, our sponsors were Mrs. Stark and Mr. MacDonald. Our officers were President, Dean Bradley; Vice President, Steve Courtney; Secretary-Treasurer, Joe Forrester and Historian, Neal Kirkpatrick.

Our candidate for the Barnwarming was Shirley Lancaster. For the Kitchenwarming, Darrell Howell, and Barbara Padgett was queen of the Rose Dance.

The senior play, "The Other You," was very successful with 12 class members in the cast.

Our main goal that year was to make money for the trip. We had workdays, car washes, a chili supper, a rummage sale, bake sales, and sold Dairy Queen coupon books.

We had three glorious days in Chicago for our senior trip. We stayed in the Palmer House and had a wonderful time.

Baccalaureate was held May 14 and commencement May 18. We, the Senior Class of 1961, bid farewell to M.H.S. on that unforgettable night.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Memphis High School, being of sound mind after four strenuous years, do hereby make, declare, and publish this as our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills.

Be it known that all members of the Senior Class generously, with charity to all and malice toward none, bequeath the following class property.

Signed, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1961

- I, JOAN ANTHONY, leave, but due to insufficient data and uncontrollable factions, don't know for how long.
- I, WAYNE BAKER, leave with Janette — to park somewhere else besides in front of the school house.
- I, MARILYN BARB, will my lipstick coated clarinet reeds to Coaches Alliston and MacDonald to use as splints on the broken toes of the basketball team.
- I, MARY MARGARET BECKERT, will my ability to get by with talking in Home Ec. to Carol Cunningham who is always getting caught.
- I, RICHARD BILLUPS, will my slightly used track shoes to Mrs. Stark so that she will be able to keep up with the oncoming seniors.
- I, TOM BINGMAN, will my ability to play footsy with Nola Riney on the school bus to Charles Houghton.
- We, DEAN BRADLEY, NEAL KIRKPATRICK, and JOE FORRESTER, leave our ability to commit the perfect crime to anybody who thinks they can do the same thing we did and get away with it.
- I, DAVID BURNS, will to Coach Alliston my ability to get along with Wanda Baker.
- I, JEANIE CAMPBELL, leave everything to anyone who thinks they can take it.
- I, KAI CONE, leave to anyone in 6th hour study hall next year my technique in leaving without having to go to the office, — for a while, that is.
- I, STEVE COURTNEY, do leave in my first will and testament, 17 gallons of ready mix Metrecal to Big Fat Tab, also a pair of used knee guards, to Knobby Knee Kroggel, and one do-it-yourself nose kit to Deanna Harvey in hope that she will get a much straighter set this time. Last but not least, I leave to Linda Moore one pair of tweezers being very much in favor of her removing the phonograph needle which she was apparently vaccinated with at an early age.
- I, SUE CROLEY, leave to Margaret Weaver my girls' sports clothes because hers have holes in them.

Last Will and Testament

- I, LARRY CURRY, leave my track shoes to Mr. Powell because he can get places in them faster than in his old Kaiser.
- I, MARY JO DUNCAN, will my ability to talk in biology to Joanne Payne and Leslie Harris who are always getting caught.
- I, KAREN DUTTON, will one tube of oil paint to Mr. Wainman so that he can make some more of those loud ties.
- I, JIM EGGERS, leave to anyone who needs it the right side of the front seat in my little "red bomb" because it is rarely used.
- I, LINDA DARLEE FARRIS, will my ability to get through school to anyone who needs it.
- I, SARA FARRIS, will my ability to survive on the Bible Grove bus to Glenda Corwin.
- I, CARLY FOUNTAIN, will my ability to play 21 on the bus to Dennis Kraus.
- I, SHARON GARDNER, will my pair of striped track shoes to Harold Baker so that he can capture his true love without too much effort.
- I, BARBARA GLASS, leave my ability to talk in study hall without getting caught to Marjorie Prebe, who could use it.
- I, DEANNA HARVEY, will my worn-out canvas shoes, my old formal, and $10 to Mary Lou if she will jump off the water tower.
- I, DOROTHY HEATON, will my quiet manners to Linda Grover, who could sure use them.
- I, KAREN HENDRICKS, leave to Bill Adams the sticker on my locker which states: Flunk now, avoid the rush later.
- I, LELAND HOWARD, leave with a full tank of gas and high hopes for Kirksville.
- I, DARRELL HOWELL, will my taxi service to Bill Adams so that he can take care of all the girls next year.
- I, ARLENE HUFF, leave my slightly used braces to Mr. Powell so that he will always have an excuse to visit his friend, the dentist.
- I, CAROLYN HYDE, will leave for Ottumwa. I wonder why?
- I, NELDA HYDE, will my gym clothes to Libby Dierking, who is always losing hers.
- I, JERI KROGGEL, will to Marcia Drummonds my ability to get along with Dick Robinson.
- I, KAREN LANCASTER, will to Judy Schuchman my little black book and hope she has as much fun with it as I did.
- I, SHIRLEY LANCASTER, will nothing because all I have left is my "very good sweat shirt", and I'm going to keep it for memories' sake.
- I, ANN LOUDER, of sound mind, will to Carolyn Walker all the old class rings which I have worn throughout the past four years.
- I, HELEN LUDWICK, will to Steve Courtney, the Metrecal he willed to me, seeing as how he needs it more than I.
- I, DALE McLELAND, will my ability to not do anything to anyone who wants it.
- I, MARY MILLER, will to Jill Templeman, my ability in finding an Edina boy and keeping him.
- I, DIXIE LEE MOHR, will the position of editor of the SANDBURR to anyone who is crazy enough to accept it.
- I, LINDA MOORE, leave the name and address of reliable phychiatrist to Mr. Powell, who needed one this year but just didn't have time to make an appointment.
- I, SANDRA MOORE, leave my sloppy manners and my loud voice to Sharon Robinson, who has trouble being heard in the halls.
- I, BARBARA MYERS, leave my remarkable brain cell and gracefulness to my little sister, Beverly, hoping she doesn't take advantage of this gift.
- I, FEROL MYERS, just leave — to start being "Good."
- I, RICHARD LEWIS NELSON, will my ability to study to anyone who wants it.
- I, MARY OWINGS, leave all my old chemistry tests and other papers in Mr. Campbell's waste basket, so that any mad scientist wanting them can dig them out and use them next year.
- I, BARBARA PADGETT, leave my position as station attendant to anyone who wants it as I will be busy managing the books.
- I, MIKE PATTERSON, if I leave it will be a miracle and I need everything I got so I ain't gonna' will nothin'.
- I, JOLENE PERRY, will my hair styling to Linda Grover who could use it.
- I, LARRY RODGERS, just leave—
- I, DON ROBESON, will my ability to get zeros in Mr. Wainman's music appreciation class to anyone who can use it.
- I, NANCY SHELLEY, will my ability to be late to fourth period class and not get caught to Janette Small, who does very well herself.
- I, JUNIOR SHINN, taking Sharon with me, leave with Junior and Janette.
- I, RAYMOND SMITH, leave my track shoes to Eric Shepard hoping he will follow my footsteps.
- I, RONALD TRUEBLOOD, will my ability to get along with Mr. Wainman to anyone who needs it.
- I, OLIVE LOU WATKINS, will my quiet ways to Connie Racey.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Joan Anthony has just been promoted to the position of private secretary to Frank Campbell of the Frank Campbell Insurance Agency.

Junior Baker is presently working on a "Small" farm near Greensburg.

Marilyn Barb has just sold the last of the '61 Senior Dairy Queen coupon books by a twist of the preacher's arm.

Mary Beckert is still fighting her own "Battles."

Richard Billups has just set a new record at the Olympic Games in the mile run. When asked for comment, he replied, "Arlene was chasing me."

Tom Bingman, newest partner in the Bell-Croley and Bingman Hatchery, dropped an incubator on his father-in-law's head. Mr. Croley's only reply was, "You've already taken a heavy load off my shoulders."

The North African Providence of Dina-Pandy revolted against the owner of their country, Dean Bradley, because he was too familiar with some of the natives.

Since David Burns' high school days he spends his time "Wandering."

Jeanie Campbell, retired basketball star of M.H.S., is on her guard to raise forwards.

The famous Kai Cone, exotic dancer, was recently taken into custody by the police but they can't seem to pin anything on her.

Steve Courtney, successor to the great impostor and King of Siam, has added fifty girls to his harem.

Sue Croley recently completed her 20th year at Stephens and acquired her art of bachelors degree.

Larry Curry was seriously injured when knocked down by a wave. He replied, "I was writing love letters in the sand."

Mary Jo Duncan is on her way to the White House with a Kennedy. Wait until she finds out it's Gene she's with instead of Jack.

Karen Dutton was found wandering around in her husband's dream house with forty runny-nosed children tagging at her apron strings. When asked for comment she said, "They said it couldn't be done."

Jim Eggers, multi-million dollar playboy, has just purchased another fifteen hundred oil wells to supply his Studebaker's oil needs.

Linda Farris finally grabbed the brass ring but was quite disappointed when she discovered the ticket man didn't go with it.

Sara Farris recently opened her Soap-in-Suds Drive-In. Her noted car hop is Karen Lancaster.

Professor Joe Forrester has devised a tool for eating and calls it a fork.

Carly Fountain recently set a record for the number of hours in a saddle. When asked for comment, he said, "Who put the bubble gum in my saddle?"

Sharon Gardner, the blond bombshell of Tijuana, was recently chosen "Miss Hot Tamale."

Barbara Glass, professional golfer, teed her opponent, Nelda Hyde, off when she made a hole in one.

Dick Graham is in Sing Sing counting pink elephants since Mr. Dillard raided his still.

Deanna Harvey, after considerable thought, replied, "I'm Dunn."

Darrell Howell has just discovered the hidden body in Toni.

Arlene Huff recently cornered the world market on glue for her itsey bitsey teeny weeny yellow polka dot bikini.

Dorothy Heaton at the Annual Scotland County Turtle Association Relays came in first by defeating the champion mud turtle.

Karen Hendricks, owner of the luxurious Horse Shoe night club in Las Vegas, has decided to turn in the silver for Hyde.

Leland Howard has just been accepted as a permanent resident in Graham Hall at Kirksville. He plans to begin college soon.

Carolyn Hyde has just been fired from Elvis Presley Enterprises, Inc. She tried to curl Elvis' hair.

Neal Kirkpatrick has had a great deal of difficulty since graduating from M.H.S. because he can't seem to find what he needs to know in books.

Jeri Kroggel, sitting in her modern home, was asked what she thought of it. She replied, "I just don't know what to think of these new fangled things."

Shirley Lancaster has cut out drinking, smoking and boys, and is cutting out paper dolls.

Ann Louder and Mary Miller have just received their wings from the United States Air Force.

Helen Ludwick, famed dress designer, has just moved into her thirty-five room house. Five rooms of which are living quarters and the remaining thirty are used for her wardrobe.

Dixie Lee Mohr and Sandra Moore are now appearing in Carnegie Hall, singing the song that made them famous, "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes."

Flash! Barbara Myers has just grounded the flying commerce teacher.

Ferol Myers is still counting "Goods."

Linda Moore, at the young age of 62, is still singing, "Johnny Wait For Me," in the shower.

Dale McLeland, has just found a revolutionary way to utilize the human brain. He calls it "thinking."

Richard Nelson has just spoken his first word. It was, "Oh!"

Mary Owings, armed with a hypodermic needle, was seen running down the hall trying to snag a doctor.

Barbara Padgett has just been issued a subpoena to appear in court for the destruction of her neighbor's property, for throwing saucers during one of her tantrums.

Mike Patterson, writer, producer, director, and star of horror movies, was asked why he took up this line of work. He replied, "Doin' what comes naturally!"

Jolene Perry, now "Heaton" says, "It's now or never, Dale."

Don Robeson, well known pursuer of the feminine race, was today conquered by the ravishing Hollywood beauty, Olive Watkins.

Larry Rodgers and Raymond Smith are on a wild hunt in Africa.

Nancy Shelley is still making pillow cases in hopes that someday she will be Mrs. Girardin.

Junior Shinn is in the hospital suffering from hen pecks.

Ronald Trueblood, famous Missouri farmer, has just purchased a farm in Timbuktu and plans to raise sticks for ice cream bars.
